12th August 2018

When a prophet sits under a bush, it’s usually a sign that things are not going well! At a particularly low moment in his relationship with God, the prophet Jonah sits, in an angry sulk, under a bush. While there he encounters God and learns a valuable lesson about mercy.

In today’s first reading, it is the prophet Elijah who sits under a bush. He is on his last legs, having escaped into the desert to avoid capture and death. At this low point, a day’s journey into the wilderness, he has had enough. He finds himself begging God to take his life.

It is a moment that will speak to many of us, particularly those of us facing struggles. Things can get on top of us. We sometimes feel alone, that our road is all uphill, that we are in the wilderness and there is nothing to do but give up. Yet when Elijah is at his lowest point, even getting ready to die, he finds he is not alone. The comforting presence of God is with him, offering sustenance to help him on his journey.

Elijah’s response to God is at first reluctant; he lies straight back down again. But with a second round of encouragement (and some more food) he is on his feet and able to continue his journey, replenished and renewed. At the moment he felt the most abandoned and alone, God was closer than ever.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Holy Communion 2018

Enrolment forms are now available at the back of the Church. If you have a child who will be in Year 3 or above in September and they would like to join the Parish Programme for First Holy Communion, please fill in the enrolment and consent forms and return them to the Parish office for the attention of Sr. Anita on or before Sunday 26th August 2018.

Please note: If your child was baptised outside our Parish you need to send in a copy of his / her baptismal certificate with the forms. If your child was baptised here there is no need to send in a copy of the certificate.

Communion Services

We have six weekend Masses in our parish. As may happen some weekend, there may be only one priest resident. Should this occur, there is no possibility of having all six Masses. We try to find a priest to help us through the diocese, but this is not always successful. Consequently, it will be necessary to have a Communion Service in place of some weekend Mass. This service will fulfil the Sunday obligation for those who participate.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Holy Day of Obligation Wednesday 15th August

Please pray for the repose of the souls of all those who have died recently including Elisabeth Page, Wolrad Kleinau, Margaret Taylor, baby Benedict Buller and for those whose anniversaries occur at this time.

Please pray for all those who are ill at this time including John Miskell, Philomena Lines, Francisco Diaz, Catherine Elkin, Avenal Jenkins, John Moloney, Rita Carter, Liz Smith, Bernadette Marron, Mark Norris, Patrick Foley, Jim O’Neill, Mike Smith, Jack O’Mahoney, Carmaline Xavier, Kathleen Murphy, Jim O’Connor, Sr. Annie Bromham IBVM, Geraldine McBride, Becki Vousden, Vertina Fernandes, Veronica Hamilton, Claire Whitehead, Alice Daly, Sheila Dooan, Janet Szymczak, Noah Gregorio, Edie Hale, Gerry Smith, Edmond Mansfield, Teresa Hill, Ida Daswa, Catrin Rees-Doherty, John Rowland, Margaret Moloney, Jim Moss, Margaret Malloney, Ruth O’Gorman, John Baxter, Derita Whyte, Carmen Mincu & Teresa Virrueta; may the Lord comfort them.

Maximilian Kolbe

Feast day 14 August

St Maximilian Kolbe was born as Raymund Kolbe on 8 January 1894, in Poland. He was very active in promoting the Immaculate Virgin Mary and is known as the Apostle of Consecration to Mary. He was strongly influenced by a vision he had of the Virgin Mary when he was 12. Kolbe joined the Conventual Franciscans and was later ordained a priest. Kolbe founded a monthly periodical and also operated a religious publishing press. Kolbe also founded monasteries in both Japan and India. To this day, the monastery in Japan remains prominent in the Roman Catholic Church in Japan.

In 1936, Kolbe returned home to Poland, and once the WWII invasion by Germany began, he became one of the only brothers to remain in the monastery. He opened up a temporary hospital to aid those in need. On 17 February 1941, the monastery was shut down; Kolbe was arrested by the German Gestapo and taken to the Pawiak prison. Three months later, he was transferred to Auschwitz. Never abandoning his priesthood, Kolbe was the victim of severe violence and harassment. When the Nazi guards selected 10 people to be starved to death in punishment, Kolbe volunteered to die in place of a stranger, a man with a family. It is said during the last days of his life Kolbe led prayers to Our Lady with the prisoners and remained calm. After two weeks, he was the last of the group to remain alive.

After a lethal injection of carbohc acid he calmly awaited death.

Recognised as the Servant of God, in 1982 Kolbe was canonised by Pope John Paul II who declared Kolbe not a confessor, but a martyr. Kolbe is often depicted in a prison uniform. He is the patron saint of drug addicts, prisoners, families, and the pro-life movement and his feast day is celebrated on 14 August, the day he died.

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:4-8

Elijah, God's messenger, became discouraged and depressed at the resistance he encountered. God permitted this, yet he looked after his messenger.

Second Reading: Ephesians 4:30-5:2

In this letter, St. Paul reminds the Ephesians that simply having God's spirit within us won't magically make us live in accordance with it.

Gospel Reading: John 6:41-51

In the Old Testament, God's people complained even as they were fed in the wilderness. Now, in the Gospel, the people are complaining to each other about Jesus, even after he has fed them in the wilderness.

Reading for the Week:

Mon: Ezek 1:2-4.24-28; Ps 148:1-2.11-14; Mt 17:22-27

Tue: Ezek 2:8-3:4; Ps 118:14.24.72.103.111.131; Mt 18:1-5.10.12-14

Wed: Apoc 11:19, 12:1-6.10; Ps 44:10-12.16; 1 Cor 15:20-26; Lk 1:39-56

Thu: Ezek 12:1-12; Ps 77:56-59.61-62; Mt 18:21-19:1

Fri: Ezek 16:1-15.60.63; Ps 12:2-6; Mt 19:3-12

Sat: Ezek 18:1-10.13.30-32; Ps 50:12-15.18-19; Mt 19:13-15

Growing in Faith Campaign

The parish's involvement in this diocesan campaign ended in July 2018 after 5 years. Very many thanks to all parishioners who contributed in any way to making it so successful. Parishioners need to check that their banks have cancelled any standing orders or direct debits either in July or at the end of their pledged period of time. Full financial details will be provided when the campaign has ended.

The Feast of the Assumption 15th August

Pope Pius XII solemnly defined in Munificentissimus Deus on 1 November 1950 that "the Immaculate Mother of God, the ever-virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory."

Although the solemn definition may have been at the midpoint of the twentieth century, the belief in the Assumption of our Blessed Mother exemplifies the dynamism of revelation and the Church's ongoing understanding of it as guided by the Holy Spirit.

Mary moves us by example and prayer to grow in God's grace, to be receptive to His will, to convert our lives through sacrifice and penance, and seek that everlasting union in the Heavenly Kingdom. In 1973, the National Conference of Catholic Bishops in their letter Behold Your Mother stated, "Christ has risen from the dead; we need no further assurance of our faith. Mary assumed into heaven serves rather as a gracious reminder to the Church that our Lord wishes all whom the Father has given Him to be raised with Him. In Mary taken to glory, to union with Christ, the Church sees herself answering the invitation of the heavenly Bridegroom."

Safeguarding Valuables

It is sad to report that money was stolen from the Traidcraft stall last Sunday morning. A couple of visitors from outside of the parish entered the church halfway through 9.30 Mass then one distracted the stall holder whilst the other took the money. Given the hot weather and the necessity to keep the doors open means there is easier access to church from the outside.

Therefore, it would be wise to safeguard your valuables, in particular, it would be best to keep them with you whilst receiving Holy Communion.
